Remote Simultaneous Interpreting

Remote Simultaneous Interpreting (RSI) is a revolutionary interpreting technology powered by our cloud-based platform.

It allows professional simultaneous interpreters to work remotely providing live translation for events taking place in a different location or online.

RSI can be used at multilingual conferences and web meetings of any size, ranging from small workshops to large international conferences.

Flexibility

INCREASED FLEXIBILITY

Interpreting services at any event, anytime and anywhere for any number of languages and any size of audience.

INTEGRATION
